O Botafogo didnot dem Orgery well against the Gremists, who isolated the midfielders aplenty and had the better attendance at the Pedro Ludovico Stadium. Despite their superiority, the visitors managed to pull one back through a penalty in the 44th minute, with Kauan Toledo converting after a controversial handball call against the Gremistas Dudu. But in the final moments of the match, Gremio goalkeeper Guilherme regained his footing and made a stunning save on a Felipe Amorim free kick to preserve his team's victory. It finished 2-1 in favor of the away team!

Botafogo, who started the game with Under-20 players and featured Under-17 players throughout the encounter, remain with 3 points from their first two matches. They travel to meet Corinthians next. Grêmio also welcomed back four players for this encounter while still retaining some injured regulars such as Lincoln and Barberena. The Tricolor is now third, level with leaders São Paulo and Flamengo, before facing the former next Tuesday at home.
