Mãozinha Pereira, the newest addition to the Memphis Grizzlies, put up an impressive performance in his team's 108-90 victory over the Detroit Pistons. In his sixth game in the NBA, the Brazilian player scored 17 points and grabbed 9 rebounds, leading his team in scoring. His performance was highlighted by a stunning dunk that drew comparisons to NBA legend Michael Jordan.

The Grizzlies' victory was their third in a row, and it comes at a much-needed time. The team has had a tough season, with 27 wins in 77 games, putting them third-worst in the Western Conference. Mãozinha's arrival is part of the team's strategy to combat injuries and improve their performance.
