The report of 76 pages of the Inspector General, that the Federal Department concentrated on manipulation by the department apostar 10 reais an investigation about nine military vouchers found discarded in the trash. Barr informed Trump before she was public and then disclosed this in an interview on radio: David Freed lawyer of the USA responsible for the matter also published a communication with details for the research; The announcement was highly criticized because it came apostar 10 reais a moment when Trump was alerting that the election would be manipulated because of vouchers. It was also very unusual - the policy of the justice department does not allow employees to comment on ongoing investigations before the charges are filed, except in limited circumstances : orientation separate instructed employees of the departments to be “particularly sensitive to the protection and reputation of the Department as impartiality or neutrality”. The federal employees responsible for the application of the law were notified of the vouchers discarded apostar 10 reais 18 de setembro de 2024 and the investigators quickly learned that evidence may not exist to support criminal charges.
