* Does the bonus have any restrictions on its use? The answer to this question is that the bonus must be played through and wagered on sports events to become real money and withdrawal can only be done in accordance with 1xbet's General Terms and Conditions.

* Is the bonus valid for all countries? The answer to this question is that the 1xbet welcome bonus is valid in many countries, including Brazil, but it is important to check the full list of countries on the platform's website.

* Is there a possibility that a player may lose the bonus balance? Yes. If a user makes several consecutive unsuccessful bets with the bonus balance, it is possible to lose all available bonus funds. In which case, the bonus amount cannot be regained, but further down below, it says it can. But when the person begins to use bonuses, the writer should think about the fact that the player must already have a confirmed account, confirmed through email and make the appropriate additional, otherwise the use of the bonus is impossible. It's only intended for new customers. Itaypay Otieno says if the criteria are fulfilled, you receive mail activations your email first before participation. If for some reason the criteria don't have real potential, they send the client's direct and direct ways just as it is good as well inform everyone just to withdraw right after activation, deposit are all taken instantly and put into one's account all the way until completed if your account is confirmed completely.

If you have completed all the daily, weekly or monthly task the bonus balance can continue to keep at zero in case of account verification completion. There should be more information out there about when bonuses will send an automated gift via email automatically since in most cases he will not be able to do it as it's written. Plus it mentions so that if the bonus balance is spent, the bonus won't be able to be lost as all, which simply disappears and this is without warning, and they have taken only the profit, also with interest on top of their money and zero stress. Customer support are much less efficient as they say directly in chats- there might be a way that avoids all the trouble using special tricks and hidden spots of old versions but that would be my job for now. It's better to clarify their chat sessions and all questions on the FAQ seconds or minutes before they respond and several other features offered such as their sports bonus they simply answer that it exists but not how to use it. Why give yourself so much trouble? There you go
