The section below covers the most common bet types. But first, we'll have to address the fact that bookmakers can be somewhat inconsistent in naming bet types. It's quite frustrating when you're about to place a bet, to not even find the correct bet type on the bookmaker website. But the bet type might just be presented with a different name than what you are looking for. This is because some bet types are referred to differently in different parts of the world. For a sports betting beginner, this can be rather confusing. But with a little practice, you'll soon learn how each bookmaker presents their odds. Read more about the different bet types in the Ultimate Guide to Sure Betting.

Win / Moneyline / Draw No Bet

Also known as straight bet, DNB or 2-way bet.

One of the most popular bet types and is offered in various sports. This market simply means betting on a specific team to win a game, match or other event. The term "win" is used almost everywhere, while "moneyline" is mostly used in the United States and a few other regions. The term "straight bet" can also be used for this type of wager. Draw No Bet In the case of three possible outcomes, as in soccer, a draw results in your stake being returned. Hence the name "draw no bet". Additionally, an Asian handicap of 0 (AH0) is the same as Draw No Bet, as it also eliminates the option of a draw.
