VISA and MasterCard are two major brands of credit cards available in most countries across the world. Most banks and financial institutions issue Visa and/or MasterCard credit card to their customers.

VISA and MasterCard are payment brands. They do not issue any credit cards directly and rather licence the right to use their brand to credit card issuers and acquirers. Issuing banks have a tie-up with VISA or MasterCard and provide such cards to the customer.

The terms and conditions associated with these cards, especially the charges, are set by the issuing bank or financial institution, and the contract is between the customer and the issuer.
