A blazer is a type of jacket that is generally distinguished from a sport coat by its more formal construction and tailoring from solid color fabrics.

Blazers are often considered a wardrobe staple due to their versatility and timeless appeal. They are traditionally navy blue, falling between the almost black of midnight blune and a simple dark blues. However, nowadays blazers come in a variety of colors and styles, making them a perfect addition to any outfit, whether dressed up or down.

History of Blazers:

Blazers have their origins in 19th-century England. Initially, they were two very different jackets. One was worn by members of the British Royal Navy, who first sported a navy-blue double-breasted jacke as its color matched the uniform. The other was created in the late 1800s by Lady Margaret Boat Club at St. John's College in Cambridge, England, where member, of the club wore distinctive blazing red reefer jacketos.
