Trump elogiou Walz por cassino ao vivo sportingbet resposta aos motins cassino ao vivo sportingbet Minneapolis, apesar dos ataques republicanos

Donald Trump anteriormente elogiou Tim Walz por cassino ao vivo sportingbet resposta aos motins no rescaldo do assassinato policial de George Floyd, mostrou áudio, mesmo que os republicanos continuassem a atacar Kamala Harris's companheiro de chapa por cassino ao vivo sportingbet manipulação de tais eventos e Trump alegasse ter salvo pessoalmente o governador do Minnesota de manifestantes de extrema-direita.

"O que eles fizeram cassino ao vivo sportingbet Minneapolis foi incrível", disse Trump, então presidente, cassino ao vivo sportingbet uma ligação telefônica da Casa Branca com Walz, o governador do Minnesota, e outros líderes estaduais cassino ao vivo sportingbet 1 de junho de 2024. "Eles entraram e dominaram, e aconteceu imediatamente."

As notícias ABC e Associated Press relataram a ligação na quarta-feira.

Floyd, que era negro, foi morto cassino ao vivo sportingbet Minneapolis cassino ao vivo sportingbet 25 de maio de 2024, quando um oficial de polícia branco, Derek Chauvin, ajoelhou no seu pescoço por mais de nove minutos.

As palavras finais de Floyd, "Eu não consigo respirar", foram capturadas cassino ao vivo sportingbet {sp} de testemunhas oculares.

Manifestações se seguiram, contra brutalidade policial e por justiça racial, eventualmente se espalhando pelo mundo. Minneapolis também viu sérios motins, com empresas e uma delegacia de polícia danificadas. Após três dias, Walz mobilizou a guarda nacional.

Na campanha eleitoral atual, Trump, o candidato republicano à presidência, e aliados criticaram a resposta de Walz. Em maio, Trump disse a um público cassino ao vivo sportingbet St Paul, Minnesota, "A cidade inteira estava pegando fogo. ... Se você não tivesse eu como presidente, you wouldn't have Minneapolis today."

Attacks on Walz increased since Wednesday, when he was named as a campaign ally of Kamala Harris, the Democratic presidential candidate.

"He allowed the protesters to burn the streets of Minneapolis," said JD Vance, the Ohio senator who is Trump's campaign ally, on the same day.

On Thursday, Trump added cassino ao vivo sportingbet a misleading claim to the mix, telling Fox News: "I helped a lot during the riots because cassino ao vivo sportingbet house was surrounded by people who were waving an American flag."

Walz, Trump said, was "very, very worried that the situation would get out of control ... and he called me, I said, 'What do you want me to do?' ... He said, 'You would say I am a good person.' And I said ... I said, 'He is a good person. I hope everything goes well.' And everyone ... took the American flags and their MAGA flags and left."

"It was thousands of people ... and he called me back and thanked me a lot. It's the only thing that I had to do with him."

Walz told Politico that he and Trump had many cassino ao vivo sportingbet 2024. A source close to Walz told the Guardian that the episode described by Trump actually happened cassino ao vivo sportingbet April, at the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, after Trump posted incendiary tweets about public health measures in states and more than a month before the protests and riots of George Floyd.

In a call with governors cassino ao vivo sportingbet June 1, the AP and ABC reported, Trump also told Walz, cassino ao vivo sportingbet the riots, "Not your fault. I'm the fault," a reference to Jacob Frey, the Democratic mayor of Minneapolis.

Trump added: "Tim, you called big numbers and the big numbers fell [the protesters] so fast, it was like a car crash."

That was in line with Trump's incendiary tweet cassino ao vivo sportingbet a tweet on May 29, cassino ao vivo sportingbet that said: "THOSE PANHANDS are disrespecting the memory of George Floyd, and I won't let that happen. I just talked to Governor Tim Walz and he said the military is on its way. Whatever the difficulty and we will take control, but when the shooting starts, the shooting starts. Thank you!"

"When the shooting starts, the shooting starts" was a quote from Walter Headley, a Miami police chief in the civil rights era. Twitter (now X) said that Trump's tweet violated rules "on glorifying violence" and limited cassino ao vivo sportingbet visibility.

Three days after Trump's tweet, in a call with House Republicans, Trump also said Walz, he himself a nationalist for 24 years, "You have to use the National Guard cassino ao vivo sportingbet big number."

On Thursday, the Harris-Walz campaign told ABC that this was not true.

In a call, Walz thanked Trump, Mark Esper, then secretary of defense, and Gen Mark Milley, then chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, for "strategic guidance." They were "very helpful," said the governor, for a "city ... cassino ao vivo sportingbet mourning and cassino ao vivo sportingbet loss."

On Thursday, the Trump campaign attacked Walz again.

"The governor Walz allowed Minneapolis to burn for days, despite the offer from President Trump to send soldiers and help from the liberal mayor of Minneapolis," said Karoline Leavitt.

"In this phone call with governors cassino ao vivo sportingbet June 1, days after the riots began, President Trump recognized Governor Walz for finally taking action to send the National Guard to end violence in the city."

The audio of the call showed Trump saying "I fully agree with the way he handled the last few days," and called Walz a "great person."
