At land-based casinos you'll often find rooms filled with slot machines from various game developers. The games are played in a very similar way to their online counterparts, although due to space limitations you'll find that the selection is perhaps not as great.

When players say they know how to beat slot machines at a casino, it really means increasing their chances of winning at slots. As usual, you'll be relying largely on pure chance. There are plenty of theories out there, for example that machines can be 'hot' or 'cold' depending on when they last paid out, or that those closest to the walkways are 'looser' in order to entice customers. However, this is very unlikely to be the case - casinos are, after all, in the business of making money and don't want to make it too easy to win.

How to win at penny slots

One type of casino slot you'll find pretty much everywhere, from your local casino to the Las Vegas Strip, is penny slots. By betting such a small amount of money, you might think the payouts won't be so big. However, by playing the max number of paylines and credits, some players have been known to walk away with hundreds of dollars from a penny slot machine. They're certainly worth a try if you're on a smaller budget.
