Furthermore, Landim also misinterpreted the relationship between Palmeiras and W. Torre, stating that the two parties would become enemies the day after the stadium's inauguration due to conflicting interests. However, this is not the case, as W. Torre is interested in the Palmeiras playing as many games as possible at the Allianz Parque, as they own 10,000 seats and sell them to Palmeiras fans. The two months that the stadium was closed due to issues with the grass caused protests from their customers who had purchased tickets to attend matches that did not take place.

In conclusion, the creation of a SAF for the construction of a new stadium for the Flamengo is not necessary, and the reference to the Allianz Parque was incorrect. The relationship between Palmeiras and W. Torre is not an SPE, and the two parties have a contract for the use of the stadium for commercial purposes.
