Stud poker is any of a number of poker variants in which each player receives a mix of face-down and 7 face-up cards dealt in multiple betting rounds. Stud games are also typically non-positional games, meaning that the player who bets 7 first on each round may change from round to round (it is usually the player whose face-up cards make the 7 best hand for the game being played). The cards

Your goal is to draw cards that total 21, or come closer to 21 than the dealer without going over.

The dealer and each player start with two cards. The dealer's first card faces up, the second faces down. Face cards each count as 10, Aces count as 1 or 11, all others count at face value.

21 + 3 is a fun, exciting variation of the standard casino game of blackjack. After making a wager on the blackjack hand, you may make a side wager that is based on a 3 card poker hand. The side wager is a bet that your original two cards combined with the dealer's up card will combine for a winning poker hand.
