At its most basic level, the game involves one person tossing up two coins and people in the crowd betting on the outcome. The outcomes are either two heads, two tails or odds , which is one of each. Generally you can only bet on either heads or tails, and continue tossing up until you get a result.

Two-up is a traditional Australian gambling game, involving a designated "spinner" throwing two coins, usually Australian pennies, into the air. Players bet on whether the coins will both fall with heads (obverse) up, both with tails (reverse) up, or with a head and one a tail (known as "Ewan").

For single bets, we will pay out your bet in full if the team you back is winning by two goals at any stage of the match regardless of the final result. For multiple bets, the selection(s) will be marked as won within My Bets, with the bet left to run on the remaining selection(s).

2up offers are positive in expected value or EV for short, this means that you aren't going to make a profit every single time you do them, however, the maths is heavily on your side meaning that over the course of a short period of time, such as a week or a month, you will make significant profits from running the ...
