As a general guideline, many experienced players suggest seeing a flop with around 15-20% of hands in a full-ring game. However, this percentage can change based on factors such as your skill level, the tendencies of your opponents, and the specific dynamics of the game you're playing.

It is generally considered that WWSF should be around 50%. Depending on play style many players have a WWSF a few percent high or lower than this.

First things first: what is a pair of deuces in poker? A pair of deuces is a combination of two 9 twos and three other unmatched cards. It's a pretty weak combination, but it can still help you win a hand if used strategically. The pair of deuces is the weakest possible hand you can have in Texas Hold'em, which is why it's so rarely played. However, it does have its advantages. For example, if you're playing against aggressive players who consistently raise and re-raise, you can exploit their aggressiveness by calling their raises with your pair of deuces.

This strategy assumes that your opponents are more likely to have a weaker hand or fold. If they do have a strong hand, you might lose some money, but you'll have losses minimized since your initial investment will be small. Additionally, if you do get called down, you might get lucky and make a set (three of a kind) or even a Straight or Flush if you have sufficient cards.

However, there's a catch! You should only play a pair of deuces if your table image is conservative. If you've been playing very tightly and only showing down big hands, people are more likely to believe you have a monster when you raise. If you've been playing too many hands and continuation betting too light, then your raises will be less believable. So, only play deuces if you've been sitting tight.

Another situation where a pair of deuces can be useful is in heads-up play. If you're facing a very aggressive opponent who constantly raises preflop or on the flop, you can exploit their aggressiveness by calling their raises with a pair of deuces. This play works because you're not pot-committed, and your opponent pays you off too much, thinking you're weak. Furthermore, if you do happen to hit a three-of-a-kind, the board needs to be showing draws to beat you. Finally, let's talk about preflop hands. Many beginners think you should play every hand you're dealt. Don't do this! You should only play 5-6% of your preflop hands, depending on who you're talking to. Please don't bother with overcard hands, and eliminate trash single-suited cards instead. Even if you suck out and win with deuces, you'll lose in the long run. So stick to the chart!
