The goal of mahjong is similar to poker, in that the aim is to make matching sets and pairs. A set is three or four identical tiles or three consecutive tiles (also known as 'melds'), and a pair is two of the same tiles (often called 'eyes'). To win mahjong a player must form four sets and one pair.

Any five-card hand that includes five sequential cards qualifies as a straight. The suits of the cards don't matter, as any mix of suits can be used to make a straight. The highest card in the straight determines the hand's strength. If two straights go head-to-head, the hand with the highest-ranking top card wins.
