Os acordos de apelação para Fotios "Freddy" Geas, Paul J DeCologero e Sean McKinnon foram divulgados quase seis anos depois que o gângster foi espancado até a morte sua cela numa prisão problemática da Virgínia Ocidental.

Derby: a City with Hidden Charms and Excellent Public Transport

A peregrine falcon soars high above the gothic tower of Derby's cathedral while elegant grey wagtails flit across the curving weir. Despite recent rankings, Derby has much to offer as a hub for exploring the Peak District and a destination in its own right.

Derbyshire boasts a robust public transportation system, with a new unlimited bus ticket (£33 per week) and an increasing number of local attractions offering incentives for car-free visitors. Our correspondent spent a week exploring the area, using buses and trains as their primary mode of transportation.

Journey to Ashford in the Water

The Transpeak bus journey from Derby to Ashford in the Water takes 90 minutes, passing by bethhh que landscapes of yellow buttercup fields, grazing sheep, and steep green dales, all connected by dry-stone walls.

Exploring Ashford and the Surrounding Area

In Ashford, our correspondent stayed at the recently refurbished Ashford Arms, a short walk from the bus stop and opposite one of the Peak District's open-air sightseeing buses.

Ashford is the starting point for exploring the area's many attractions, including Chatsworth, where car-free visitors receive a free guidebook to the painted hall and richly paneled oak room.

The Blue route bus offers stunning views of Winnats Pass, while the Ye Olde Nags Head in Castleton serves delicious chunky chips.

Visiting the Longshaw Estate and Castleton

The Longshaw Estate, accessible by bus, features wilder sections with a trout stream running through banks of orchids and pale starry camassia. The area is rich in history, as Sheffield-based countryside campaigner Ethel Haythornthwaite raised funds to save the estate from development in 1928.

Castleton, described in Ethel Haythornthwaite's poem "The Pride of the Peak," is a "little limestone town aside the hills / ... Where white spurs jut and strange enchantment fills / The heart delighting..." The area is known for its visitable caves, Blue John jewelery, and the Blue John cavern.

Discovering South Derbyshire

The Derbyshire Wayfarer ticket allows for travel on almost any bus in the county, making it easy to explore the less-crowded towns and villages of south Derbyshire. The area is home to numerous attractions, including Cromford Mills, White Peak distillery, and the Heights of Abraham.

Experiencing Derby's Hidden Charms

Derby, often overlooked as a tourist destination, offers quiet shopping streets, crumbling infrastructure, and affordable accommodations. The city serves as a friendly base for visiting the Derbyshire countryside and has its own charms, such as the new Museum of Making, Darley Park, and the Exeter Arms.
