The idea behind this strategy is to place a bet on a team that is likely to win, and then use the "Early Payout" feature offered by some bookmakers to lock in your profits before the game is over. This feature allows you to collect your winnings early, even if the game hasn't finished yet. When using this strategy, it's important to note that not all games offer the "Early Payout" feature, so it's essential to check if it's available before placing your bet. Additionally, you should be aware that your bet may not be accepted if the game is already in progress or if the odds have changed. To start using this strategy, you'll need to create an account with a bookmaker that offers early payout and select 'On' when placing your bet. Then, you'll need to find a game where the team you're betting on is winning by two goals or more. Once you've selected 'On', your bet will be settled early, and you'll receive your winnings in cash.
